

The Clinical Division presents...

“Innovative Methods of Reducing Affect Dysregulation in Relationships”

Presenter: Gloria Batkin Kahn, Ed.D., ABPP, CGP, FAGPA

Friday, March 12, 2010

3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Scarsdale High School • Little Theatre • Scarsdale, NY 10583
(this is a handicapped accessible facility with visual aids available upon request)

This workshop will describe, discuss and demonstrate a new treatment paradigm based on findings in neuropsychology, integrating Imago relationship therapy techniques with the group process.

Learning Objectives:

Participants will learn:

1. Three rules to create emotional safety in relationships
2. Three important parts of the Couples Dialogue necessary to create affective change
3. Two benefits of twinship relationships in group therapy

Gloria Batkin Kahn, EdD, ABPP, CGP, FAGPA received her doctorate from Columbia University. She currently serves as the President of American Board of Group Psychology. In the past, she served as President of both Westchester County Psychological Association and the Westchester Group Psychotherapy Society. She has a Diplomate in Group Therapy and is an Advanced Imago Relationship Therapist. Dr. Kahn is the recipient of WCPA’s Distinguished Service Award

This program is designed for those working or training in the mental health professions.

Admission is free to WCPA members and $20.00 for non-members.

Two CE credits are available for this program.*

RSVP to 914 723-3030 or e-mail to WCPA4U@verizon.net by March 10, 2010

Let us know if you want CE credit

* The Westchester Center for Psychological Education (WCPE) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The Westchester Center for Psychological Education maintains responsibility for this program and its content. CE credit is available for those attending this presentation at a fee of $15.00, payable to WCPE.